

Student Publications

The Mountaineer is a pictorial record of the school years' events. Members of all classes who are interested in working on the Mountaineer staff are eligible. Editors and business managers start as underclassmen and work up to their positions.

Viewpoint is the Mount View newspaper. Any student who is interested in writing and is willing to do his/her part to make the publication successful may join the newspaper staff.