

Student Mental Health Services

Psychological examination should be provided by an appropriate agency for any child suspected of needing such an examination after a conference of the teacher, health nurse, principal and superintendent. The health nurse, upon receiving a school authorized referral of a child, shall make appropriate visits to the family and assist them in getting the child under care.